My life in my hands

Date & Time : 27th July 2014, Sunday, 9:30 am to 12.30 pm

Venue : SIES college of Arts and Science, Ground floor, Room No.1, Near Gurukripa restaurant, Sion West, Mumbai.

This is the second session of the 'Vedic wisdom for a fulfilling programme'.

The session will assist with moving into a deeper self acceptance and creating my own destiny as I start to master my life.

The programme is designed such that each session is complete in and of itself as well as all sessions come together in a synergistic whole. New participants i.e. Participants who were unable to attend the first session are most welcome to attend. All participants are requested to bring a notepad, pen and color pencils or crayons.

Suggested donation- Rs.200/- per person (at the venue)

A suggested donation is to cover costs of conducting the program. Families where more than one person is attending and college students will be given a discount. Young children accompanying parents will be admitted free.

Swami Brahmavidananda Saraswati and Acharya Mrinalini, traditional and contemporary teachers of Vedanta will conduct this programme.
